About Asian Arts Agency

Asian Arts Agency based in Bristol (www.asianartsagency.co.uk) is a dynamic arts development agency that develops, promotes and supports international contemporary and traditional South Asian arts in the South West and nationally. Its vision is to mainstream high quality South Asian music and arts.

As one of the UK's premier Asian Arts development agencies the organisation develops, commissions, and produces a range of arts and music events. This includes events and tours, international work, programming for festivals, digital exhibitions, artist development, and education and participation activities. The Agency works with audiences from wider communities and all age groups at community and mainstream venues and festivals. Asian Arts Agency has built a national and international reputation for its dynamic work.

With modern offices based in Queen Square Bristol and a short walk from Bristol City Centre, our work is busy, but fun and rewarding.

Digital Marketing Officer role

We have recently had much success reaching audiences online through our digital work, increasing audiences and subscribers to our digital channels, increasing engagement and viewer numbers, producing more video content and recently introducing live streaming for some of our projects. To maximise the opportunities of this growing digital activity, spot new opportunities as they arise and help us better engage with audiences online, we are creating this new, part time role.

We are looking for someone with an enthusiasm for the arts and the ability to self-motivate to join our small team. If you are a digital all-rounder with excellent knowledge of digital and social media channels and a flair for writing engaging content, we would love to hear from you.

The Digital Marketing Officer will support the Marketing and Communications Manager in managing our digital channels, taking responsibility for updating the website, managing our social media channels, producing digital content and helping to grow our online audiences and reach.

The role will support the delivery of our Digital Strategy, extending the reach of the Agency's work with online audiences and helping to develop the Agency's digital channels.

Asian Arts Agency is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applicants from all sections of the community.

Main responsibilities:

Social media support

- Provide support for Asian Arts Agency's social media channels, scheduling tweets, updating Facebook, Instagram, growing audiences and engagement on these channels.
- Proactively source, produce and co-ordinate social media content to promote the Agency's programme.
- Provide new ideas for regular digital content, such as writing blogs and other engaging content related to the Agency's work

Video and digital content

- Support the Marketing and Communications Manager with developing engaging video content for the Agency's Youtube channel and other social media channels, enabling the Agency to build its subscriber numbers and viewing figures.

Website content creation

- Assist the Marketing and Communications Manager with producing regular content for the website (news items, events, updating content), helping to increase awareness of the Agency's work.
- Assist with optimising our digital channels and improving SEO, increasing web traffic and conversion rates.

Data analysis

- Support in the collection and analysis of audience data
- Analyse data and regularly report on digital channel performance
